Description

This course covers the posting of the Agvance Grain transactions and inventories that affect the general ledger in a definable and repeatable manner that allows for analysis and audit of the grain units and dollars as they move from physical inventory to the ledger. This class identifies how all Grain transactions post to the ledger and how they affect the bottom line of the Profit and Loss Statement. To help you gain the most out of this course, you are welcome to bring a copy of your EOM Grain Checklist and (if your company hedges with a broker) a broker statement for month-end for review and explanation.

Learning Objectives

After completing this course, participants will be able to:

- Identify and correct inaccurate information on Non-Posting Grain End of Month reports prior to posting.
- Verify GL related posting entries made in Grain and the corresponding GL accounts in Accounting.
- Verify Current Market Valuation related posting entries made in Grain and the corresponding GL accounts in Accounting.
- Recognize available Board Reports and their setup options to best suit your company objectives.
- Recognize acceptable ranges on Profit and Loss reports and what transactions have an effect on this information.
